

Unlocking the Power of Historic Preservation: Federal Historic Tax Credits and the Standards for Rehabilitation

Dive into the heart of preservation and built heritage through two in-depth half-day training seminars presented by the National Park Service for architects at this year's AIA conference in Washington, D.C. You'll gain valuable insight into leveraging the Federal Historic Tax Credit (HTC) Program and applying the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation to breathe new life into historic buildings for modern use and enjoyment.

Unlocking the Power of Historic Preservation – Part 1: The Federal Historic Tax Credit Program

Wednesday, June 5, 2024; 9:00 am – 1:00 pm (3.5 LUs/HSW/RIBA, AIA Program Code NPS100)

Day 1 will provide a comprehensive overview of the program, including HTC eligibility considerations, developing a plan for a successful project, and the keys to preparing an excellent application for efficient review.

Unlocking the Power of Historic Preservation – Part 2: The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation

Saturday, June 8, 2024; 9:45 am – 1:45 pm (3.5 LUs/HSW/RIBA, AIA Program Code NPS200)

Day 2 will delve into the Standards for Rehabilitation – how they are applied, their flexibility, and how they mesh with projects with needs related to sustainability, substitute materials, special code requirements, and new construction and additions.

Registration

If you're attending this year's AIA conference, add each workshop for $49 when you register. You can also register for just the NPS symposia for $99 with a half-day symposium pass. The full AIA conference schedule can be found here: <https://conferenceonarchitecture.com/schedule/>

Technical Preservation Services, National Park Service,
1849 C Street NW, Mail Stop 7243, Washington DC 20240

Phone: (202) 513-7270

Email: nps_tps@nps.gov

Website